SPOILED BY BAD WEATHER

HEAVY RAIN AFFECTS LOUISVILLE RACING AND ATTENDANCE UNFAVORABLY.

Crystal Maid Takes the Louisville Handicap in Close Finish of Four-Irfaneh Mends Her Ways.

Louisville, Ky., May 20.—Unfavorable weather marred today's racing and was responsible for the hoorest attendance of the meetins. The track on account of the steady drenching it received, resembled a mortar bed and caused withdrawals of nany prospective stariers. Speculation fell off considerably, but as most of the winners were strongly supported, the favorite backers profited handsomely. The Louisville Handicap, at three-quarters, baving a net value of $1,500 to the winner, resulted in one of the closest finishes ever witnessed here, and brought about disagreement with the judges in regard to their placing. Crystal Maid, Charlie Eastman, Sea Swell and Al Muller landed at the finish occlosely grouped that no one outside of those on a direct line was in a position to attempt a statement as to the winner. Crystal Maid, which had moved up on the outside with a great rush, was given the purse. Charlie Eastman second and Sea Swell third. To many, including those who were in the press stand, ft appeared as if Al Muller, on the extreme inside, had lasted long enough to outstay Sea Swell, and that Crystal Maid had just nipped out. Charlie Eastman for third place.

Irfanels, which had been transferred from the W. J. Young stable into that of Jack Baker after her proposition, which had been transferred from the W. J. Young stable into that of Jack Baker after her recent poor showing, made the others in the second race appear cheap by the handy manner in which had with the claim do not the race by L. Thompson, acting supposedly for M. C. Moore, but after the filly was delivered to him, trainer Miller Henderson protested to the judges that the claim was irregular and by witnesses will try to show that Thompson had been the judges are investigating the case and will rule on it tomorrow.

The handicap at a mile and a sixteenth had to be declared off on account of the many scratches and a selling race at a mile and seventy yards was substituted. Alice won over Lady Vie, with Greenbridge, recently acquired by H. G. Bedwell, i

New York, May 20.—The best price now obtainable against Sir Martin, the American hope in the Epsom Derby, is 3½ to 1. Sir Martin did a well-paced mile and a quarter spin at Newmarket Tuesday in preparation for his Derby effort.

MASKETTE TAKES THE LADIES STAKES.

Belmont Park Newt Monday.

Roseben Runs Unplaced to Chapultopec—Racing at Belmont Park Next Monday.

New York, May 20.—Maskette, queen of the filles, won the forty-first running of the famous Ladies Stakes, at odds of 1 to 4, from Lady Bedford, Field Mouse and Affliction, the last named being a second string in James R. Keene's entry. The brilliant quartette finished in the order named in 1:30, which is the fastest time ever recorded for the stake. There was eager curiosity on the part of everyone present to see the renowned young name, and her appearance on the track was greeted for the stake. There was eager curiosity on the part of everyone present to see the renowned young name, and her appearance on the track was greeted for the stake. There was eager curiosity on the part of everyond the part of the grandstand. Butwelb yelled at her and the crowd, taking unbrage thereat, called after him: "Don't call that filly-mames." In the actual racing Maskette singled out early and made the running by an unnecessarily wide gan. She appeared to fully extend herself as Lady Bedford loomed up menacingly when beginning the final furlong, but there was never any need of Butwell's display of overanxiety in the closing strides. Lady Bedford's sensational closing sprint thrilled the spectators, while Field Mouse and Affliction ran like non-stay-res.

There was a rumor in circulation before the race that Maskette was lame and on the verge of a breakdown. It was apparent that she had been under serious suspicion of unsoundness during the winter, for both ankles showed marks of having been punch fired. While an abnormally growthy two-year-old the neerless Disguise filly did not seem unduly big as a three-year-old. Moreover, she was decidedly Hight flanked in comparison with last year, though stripping very fit. When asked last week why be did not send Maskette out in a preliminary public trial for today's big stake, Rowerepiled: "If she is going to break down I'll have it occur if a stake, not in a cheap purse race." Her comparence of the stake of the st

George Rose Sends Instructions to Los Angeles Have Track Made Ready for Racing.

Los Angeles, May 20.—That Santa Anita Park will open for racing next fall as usual, in spite of the recent enactment of adverse legislation in this state, is indicated by instructions telegraphed here yesterday from San Francisco by George Rose, one of the directors of the track. Rose instructed the track superintendent to have the plant made ready for racing in the fall and authorized the announcement that the meeting will be on an extensive scale. It is said that betting will be by the New York oral method. Rose is quoted as saying that the betting question will have to take care of itself.

ED CORRIGAN GIVES UP HAWTHORNE.

A quit claim deed was filed in the Cook County recorder's office Wednesday in which Ed Corrigan and his wife conveyed their equity in three-quarters of the Hawthorne race track to ex-alderman Thomas Carey for $25,000. Of this sum. Mr. Corrigan received but $2,000 in cash. $24,000 going to pay a note made by him, indersed by Mr. Carey and held by Foreman Bros. Banking Company.

years. He is also less interested in politics man in the old days and is president of the American Brick Company.

When asked what he meant to do with Hawthorne, Mr. Carey said: "Leave it as it is and wait until the public gets a little sense."

CORRIGAN'S REPLY IN GATES' SUIT.

Lexington, Ky., May 20.—Edward Corrigan returned this morning from Chicago. Attorney John T. Shelby, acting for Mr. Corrigan, has filed a cross bill in answer to the suit recently brought by John W. Gates. Mr. Corrigan in the cross bill admits that he made a note for sixty days for $35,500 to Gates; that the money was used by Gates in buying for him 38 shares of stock of the New Orleans Jockey Club; that to further secure Gates he gave him as collateral 100 more shares of the same stock; that he was required to pay a usurious rate of interest; that Gates took advantage of his illness in New Orleans and notified him on January 27 that the stock would be sold February 1; that he was unable to have himself repre-

PRISCILLIAN NOT DOING WELL IN ENGLAND.

New York, May 20.—In a letter to Thomas Welsh, Jack Joyner, who is training the Whitney string and part of that of August Belmont in England, says that all his charges save Priscillian are doing well. Priscillian, whose ankles were bad last season and the year before, has been lane. Joyner was not sanguine when he left Sheepshead Bay last fall of getting many good races out of Priscillian.

It is improbable that Priscillian will fill any of his early engagements. August Belmont is keenly disappointed at the unfavorable reports concerning Priscillian. The chairman of the Jockey Club is on record as saying that Priscillian is the best horse his Spendthrift stallion, Hastings, has sent to the races. The big chestnut gelding is as yet unbeaten. He won seven races last season, his most notable success being in the Commonwealth Handicap at Sheepshead Bay.

HOPE FOR RACING AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, May 20.—The belief is gaining ground that New Orleans will not long be without racing. A prominent citizen, who keeps in close touch with local conditions, predicts that the next legislature will repeal the Locke law, which put the Crescent City tracks out of business, and enact a measure which will permit restricted racing. It is said that reorganization of the racing organizations will be a necessary preliminary to the carrying out of this program. The idea is of affairs of the two tracks to retire and repeated to come to the front. A can dear to the control of the racing crowds and it is thought that there will be a considered with the restoration of the sport, provided that certain concessions are made by those most directly interested.

FAVORITES IN FRONT AT JAMESTOWN.

Norfolk, Va., May 20.—Four favorites and two long shots was the order at the Jamestown track this afternoon, Alice Mack and Golden Castle being the successful long shots, Secret Service, the public choice in the second race, tunseated Walker soon after the start, while Proclivity, one of the two starters in the jumping race, turned a somersault over the ninth hedge. Hayes gamely remounted and finished the course.

VOORHEES RETIRED TO THE STUD.

San Francisco, Cal., May 20.—A. B. Spreckels has discarded Marius II., one of his imported stallions, and has installed the American horses, Dr. Lego and Voorhees, for stud duty at Napa Stock Farm.

DAILY RACING FORM

The imported stallion, Solitaire II., is retained. Dr. Leggo was a double Derby winner in California and has a Burns Handicap to his credit. Voorhees is a son of Solitaire II., whose racing record probably would have been much better but for unsound underpinning, resulting from injudicious handling in the early part of his two-year-old season. # WHIMSICAL FOALS FILLY BY HAMBURG.

Whimsical foaled this week a handsome black filly by Hamburg at Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale Farm. Whimsical, a slashing big daughter of Orlando and Kismet, is well remembered for her career on the turf. She started sixteen times as a two-year-old, when trained by T. J. Gaynor, and was only once worse than third. She won seven of her races, was six times second and twice third. In her three-year-old season she was one of the best of her age and sex in training and retired with a record of $27,895 won.

FAIR PLAY'S FAILURE SURPRISES.

According to the Newmarket correspondent of London Sporting Life, Fair Play, which was the great tip of the London experts to win the Kempton Park Jubilee Handicap, had run a trial at a mile and a quarter over a straight course, in which Autaeus led him for the first five furiongs and Babwolf was with him for the last five furiongs. Illy defeat could not be accounted for, except that the country of the pace too keen. Ebor's time in winning the mile and a quarter being 2:02, fully equal to the record.

MERITS OF CELT AND KING JAMES.

If King James and Celt meet in the Brooklyn Handicap at Gravesend there will be plenty of action, as it is conceded that they are the best handicap horses in America today. Hildreth thinks that King James will take Celt's measure under whatever conditions they may race, but the clockers at the Bay say that Celt is as great a race horse as Colin and will prove invincible.

TRANCE IN RATHER A BAD WAY.

New York, May 20.—Trance, George Odom's crack filly, is in rather a bad way. The rupture of the tendon sheath which made it necessary for Odom to give up the notion of starting her in the Metropoli-tan Handicap, has proved to be rather a serious injury. Odom has not given up hope of getting her to the races again, but he fears that she may not hereafter beat horses of the kind she trimmed last season.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. W. C., Chicago. You should receive $20.

James O., South Chicago. You won even money.
G. A. B., Chicago. Plantland's average was 11 to 1.

John I. and others, Chicago. In a dead heat the money bet is added together and divided equally between the layer and the backer.

J. J. F., Chicago. When one backs a horse to show the bet is that the horse will run third or better and if it runs first, second or third, the bet wins.

Fred C. Chicago. On the basis of the mutuel betting, Gypsy King paid sixty cents to each dollar bet on him and Hyperion II, twenty-six cents to the dollar.

A. M., Chicago. The bet on Royal Onyx was draw. A bet on a horse in a race from which he is scratched does not follow him to another to which a may be added.

is scratched does not follow him to another to which he may be added.

J. J. C., Chicago. A bet in a handbook on a horse that is included in a mutuel field does not win unless the horse runs to the place for which it is backed. Your horse ran unplaced and the bet lost.

Benny D., Chicago. Your place and show bet on the Dunlop entry May 18, was a draw. Takahira was the entry after Pearl Point was scratched and there was no place or show price against him.

F. C. P., Toronto, Ont. In such cases this newspaper always decides it a losing bet, but gives a draw if your horse has been scratched, no matter where the stablemate finishes. Some bookmakers pay such bets, but do not allow the draw.

J. O. P., Toronto, Ont. (1) The cases were not similar; one horse was backed singly in bookmaking place or show and there was no separate place or show price against him. The other was one of a field in mutuel betting and any horse in a field that is placed earns payment as it would in bookmaking but unplaced horses in the mutuel field win nothing. (2) No. You had your option of backing the entry and elected to back a single horse instead. (3) Certainly. (4) Meaning of your query not clear.
